

In July 2012 the 3rd International Septuaginta / summer school will be organised in Göttingen.

Participants will take part in 14 seminar sessions, during which they will have the opportunity to work intensively on several passages from the book of Proverbs and deal with current issues in Septuagint scholarship. Various cultural activities complete the programme.

Prof. Dr. Jan Joosten, this year's lecturer of the summer school, is professor of Old Testament at the University of Strasbourg (France) and president of the International Organization for Septuagint and Cognate Studies (IOSCS). His main research interests include textual criticism and history of interpretation of the Septuagint and other Bible versions, biblical rhetoric and Hebrew linguistics.

3rd International Septuaginta Summer School 7/16–7/20/2012

From July 16 to July 20, 2012, the 3rd International Septuaginta | summer school will be held in Göttingen, one of Europe's nicest university cities located in the heart of Germany.

The summer school is organised by the Septuaginta-Unternehmen of the Academy of Sciences and Humanities of Göttingen, which represents more than a century of critical study of the Septuagint. Cooperation partners are the Faculty of Theology of the Georg-August-Universität Göttingen and the Centrum Orbis Orientalis et Occidentalis (CORO).

On the basis of selected passages from the book of Proverbs, students and doctoral students from European and other universities will engage in a critical discussion of current issues in Septuagint scholarship.

An attractive cultural programme will offer the participants an exclusive insight into the university town of Göttingen by following the trail of great scholars who built the rich tradition of the city and its university and shaped the reputed biblical research projects of the Academy of Sciences and Humanities.
