5th International Septuaginta Summer School 7/21–7/25/2014

From July 21 – 25, 2014, the 5th International Septuaginta Summer School will be held in Göttingen, one of Europe's nicest university cities located in the heart of Germany.

The summer school is organised by the Septuaginta-Unternehmen of the Academy of Sciences and Humanities of Göttingen, which represents more than a century of critical study of the Septuagint. Cooperation partners are the Faculty of Theology of the Georg-August-Universität Göttingen and the Centrum Orbis Orientalis et Occidentalis (CORO).

Students and doctoral students from European and other universities will investigate the theories concerning the production of LXX Isaiah, as well as the interpretational history of the Greek versions of Isaiah in Judaism and Christianity.

An attractive cultural programme will offer the participants an exclusive insight into the university town of Göttingen by following the trail of great scholars who built the rich tradition of the city and its university and shaped the reputed biblical research projects of the Academy of Sciences and Humanities.
