

The Cold War Project Presents

Photo: Associated Press

SERGEI KHRUSHCHEV @ PENN

Almost exactly 50 years after Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev denounced Joseph Stalin's atrocities at the 20th Congress of the Communist Party, his son, Sergei Khrushchev, will lecture at the University of Pennsylvania. Please join us for:

Sergei Khrushchev
"KENNEDY, KHRUSHCHEV, AND THE COLD WAR"

Monday, April 3

5:30 pm

College Hall, Room 200

Book-signing event to follow

Professor Sergei Khrushchev is Senior Fellow at the Watson Institute for International Studies at Brown University. He has lectured and published widely in the fields of Russian economic and political reforms; US-Soviet relations from 1950-1964; the history of the Soviet space program; and Nikita Khrushchev's economic, political, and security reforms.

This event is co-sponsored by Penn's Department of Slavic Languages and Literature, the Department of History, the Office of the Provost, and by the Department of French, German, Italian and Slavic Languages at Temple University.